1. I stipulate to a court commissioner and/or temporary judge until final determination of the cause.
2. Right to an attorney: I understand that I have the right to be represented by an attorney throughout the proceedings. I understand that the Court will appoint a free attorney for me if I cannot afford to hire one, but at the conclusion of my case, I might be ordered to pay all or part of the costs of that representation based on my ability to pay. I understand that there are dangers and disadvantages of giving up my right to an attorney, and that it is almost always unwise to represent myself.

I have told my attorney all the facts that are known to me about my case. We have discussed my constitutional and statutory rights, the waiver of those rights, any possible defenses relating to the charges, enhancements, and allegations and any possible consequences of this plea.
4. Right to a Court or Jury Trial: I understand I have a Constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by the Court, or by a jury of 12 citizens selected from the community where I would participate in the selection of the jurors. At the trial, I would be presumed innocent, and I could not be convicted unless the Court or all 12 jurors were convinced of my guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. I give up my right to a jury trial and a trial before a judge.
5. Right to confront and cross-examine witnesses: I understand I have the right to confront and cross-examine all witnesses against me. I give up my right to confront and cross-examine witnesses.
6. Right to produce evidence: I understand that I have the Constitutional right to have the Court use its power to subpoena witnesses and documents on my behalf and to present evidence, at no cost to me. I give up the right to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of evidence. I give up the right to call witnesses on my behalf.
7. Right against self-incrimination: I understand that I have a right to remain silent and not incriminate myself, and the right to testify on my own behalf. I understand that by pleading guilty or no contest, or by admitting prior conviction(s) or probation violation(s), I am incriminating myself. I give up my right to remain silent and to not incriminate myself.
8. Preliminary Examination: I understand I have the right to a preliminary hearing to determine if there is probable cause to order me to stand trial on these charges. If applicable – I give up this right.

I also waive and give up the above constitutional and statutory rights as to the enhancements and allegations that I am admitting, including any prior prison, serious felony, or prior conviction allegations.
