Trial Setting Conference on Petition for Surcharge and Objections to Account

Appearance required. Parties who wish to appear remotely must contact the clerk of the court at (209) 725-4111 to seek permission and arrange for a remote appearance. Appear to set trial dates for Petition for Surcharge.

On September 21, 2023, Former Administrator Jose Hector Navarro filed an unsigned unverified "Final Accounting of Former Administrator Jose Hector Navarro." On November 9, 2023, Weldon J. Mattos, Jr., Guardian Ad Litem for Andrea and Sofia Navarro, filed "Objections to Final Accounting of Former Administrator Jose Hector Navarro." On December 15, 2023, Former Administrator Jose Hector Navarro filed an unsigned unverified "Updated Final Accounting of Suspended Administrator Jose Hector Navarro." On December 28, 2023, Weldon J. Mattos, Jr., Guardian Ad Litem for Andrea and Sofia Navarro, filed "Objections to Updated Final Accounting of Former Administrator Jose Hector Navarro, undated, unsigned."

On December 15, 2023, Interim Administrator Mark Adams filed a verified "Petition for Surcharge of Removed Administrator" pursuant to Probate Code § 9601 and 11003. Paragraph 8 of the Petition for Surcharge contained objections to the two accountings filed by the Removed Administrator. On December 21, 2023, Weldon J. Mattos, Jr., Guardian Ad Litem for Andrea and Sofia Navarro filed a “Response to Surcharge Motion and Request for Additional Surcharge. On February 14, 2024, Removed Administrator Jose Hector Navarro filed a Response to Petition for Surcharge of Removed Administrator.

The Petition for Surcharge asserts the following grounds for surcharge (1) Central Valey Labor, Inc., (“CVLI”) which the Petition alleges was dissolved and abandoned which the Petition alleges a value of $6.2 Million at the date of Death; (2) Bell Avenue, an Orchard owned by the estate that was inventories for $1,154,000, for which purchase offers of $1,344,000 are alleged in the petition, and which was subsequently sold for $1,044,100 resulting in a proposed surcharge of $300,000; (3) Accountings that the petition alleges that charges and credits do not balance, no explanation for the carry value of assets, but does not allege a specific amount of surcharge for the accounts themselves; (4) Co-owned Property in which the Removed Administrator is alleged to assert an ownership interest, but no allegations as to a specific amount of surcharge; (5) Costs of Administration; and unspecified additional items. The Petitions for Extraordinary Compensation approved by the Court to date are: $70,045.00 and $46,594.82 per order issued March 8, 2024; $54,033.00 and $136,410.20 per order issued July 17, 2024; and $46,837.00 and $304,535.08 per order issued January 25, 2025, resulting in total extraordinary fees to date of $658,445.10.

The Guardian Ad Litem’s Response to Surcharge Motion and Request for Additional Surcharge asserts the following amount: (1) CVLI, minimum $6.2 Million; (2) Bell Property $319,150; (3) Horses $44,000; (4) WJM Attorney’s Fees $48,625; (5) Uncollected and unaccounted for receivables $127,352; (6) Gordon Fees $8,500; (7) Jensen and Associates $6,500; (8) Tamazula Income Tax $30,000; (9) Unpaid Winton Way interest/principal $24,000; (10) Others paid to correct IRS filing error, to be determined; and Fees of Mark Adams and Associates to be determined (fees approved by court to date total $658,445.10). The objections to the Final Account and Updated Final Account also contain specific deficiencies in the account. The Removed Administrator did not file any response to the Objections to Final Account, the Objections to Updated Final Account, or the Response to Surcharge Motion and Request for Additional Surcharge filed by the Guardian ad litem.

A court trial was held with regard to the valuation of CLVI resulting in a valuation of $11.1 Million per order issued December 27, 2024. A Motion for Reconsideration to Re-Open Testimony or New Trial regarding the December 27, 2024 order was filed January 10, 2025 and is set for hearing on March 28, 2025. While that motion was pending, a Notice of Appeal regarding the December 27, 2024 order to the Fifth Appellate District was filed on February 13, 2025. On February 4, 2025, the Court of Appeal for the Fifth Appellate District issued an order suspended designation of the record and proposed briefing schedule pending the Court’s decision to select or not select the case for mediation.

The Scope of the Remaining Matters to be set for trial would appear to be dictated by the Response to Petition for Surcharge filed by the Removed Administrator. The First Paragraph of the Response to Petition for Surcharge of Removed Administrator filed February 14, 2024 asserts that “Jose Navarro was either given: no advice; inappropriate advice; or negligent advice from a legal standpoint, with respect to his duties as administrator.” (Response at Page 1:20-21.) Appear to address whether the Removed Administrator is asserting advice of counsel as an affirmative defense or is asserting that attorney malpractice was a substantial factor causing damage incurred by the estate for which surcharge is sought and for which an attorney or attorneys, who are not currently joined to this action, are legally responsible. Appear to address the specific issues of proposed surcharge to which any affirmative advice of counsel defense applies.

The First Paragraph of the Response to Petition for Surcharge of Removed Administrator filed February 14, 2024 also asserts: Mr. Navarro also had a letter from his deceased son indicating his wishes which Mr. Navarro, in advance of adequate advice, believed was his duty to fulfill.” The Petition for Letters of Administration verified by Removed Administrator Hector Navarro and filed April 12, 2018 asserts that decedent died intestate and identifies the intestate heirs. In light of the Verified Petition that was filed, the above quoted language appears to concede a breach of fiduciary duty with regard to distribution of estate assets, subject to a potential negligence of counsel affirmative defense.

In Estate of Massaglia (1974) 38 Cal.App.3d 767, 774, the Court held: “Where funds are expended without prior authority the trial court must determine whether the expenditures were necessary and reasonable. ‘ . . . These matters must of necessity be left to the discretion of the judge in settling the account; and, unless it appears that such discretion has been abused, it is not subject to review . . . .’” (Id. [quoting Estate of Moore (1891) 88 Cal. 1, 4].) Appear to address the items of surcharge to which this contention applies and whether an evidentiary hearing is necessary with regard to those surcharge claims given the allegations in the response.

“In probate court, nothing speaks more eloquently or provides more insight into factual and legal issues than an accounting.” (Christie v. Kimball (2012) 202 Cal.App.4th 1407, 1409.) While Paragraph 2 of the Response to Petition for Surcharge denies any breach of fiduciary duty, asserts that the Removed Administrator did use ordinary care and diligence, and denies any request for surcharge, the Objections to Final Account and Objections to Updated Final Account, if upheld, would in fact establish a breach of fiduciary duty, lack of ordinary care, and grounds for surcharge. Appear to address which objections to the accounts, if any, require an evidentiary hearing and which are subject to the discretion of the trial court. (Estate of Massaglia (1974) 38 Cal.App.3d 767, 774.)

In Paragraph 7 of the Response to Petition for Surcharge of Removed Administrator, Mr. Navarro asserts that the two Bell Avenue Properties were intertwined to the extent they were co-dependent on the water and pump resources. In light of the surcharge allegation that he declined on offer in excess of appraised value and then sold for less than the appraised value, appear to address what issues require an evidentiary hearing.

In Paragraph 9 of the Response to Petition for Surcharge of Removed Administrator, Mr. Navarro asserts that he has an interest in 8850 Palm Street in Delhi CA and that Decedent Nestor Ivan Navarro had no interest in such property. Absent a timely filed creditors claim, any claim of a debt owed by the decedent would appear to be time barred and any attempt to collect a time barred creditor claim would be a per se breach of fiduciary duty. Appear to address what issues if any require an evidentiary hearing. At present, there are no 850 Petitions asserting an ownership interest in 8850 Palm Street Delhi.

In Paragraph 10 of the Response to Petition for Surcharge of Removed Administrator, Mr. Navarro asserts that Costs of Administration are excessive. Given that the Court has already ruled on the expenses of the Interim Administrator presented to date and given that the determination of the reasonableness of fees charged by Mr. Mattos is within the sound discretion of the court, Appear to address what, if any, issues concerning Administration Costs require an evidentiary hearing.
