Case No. Title / Description

24CV-06280 Mona Mariano v. Rodolfo Santana, et al.

Demurrer to First Amended Complaint by Defendant Transit Joint Powers Authority for Merced County, a government entity erroneously sued as County of Merced by and through Transit Joint Powers Authority for Merced County

Continued on the Court's own motion to April 24, 2025, at 8:15 a.m. in Courtroom 8, to be heard concurrently with the demurrer to the first amended complaint filed by defendant, County of Merced.

24CV-06591 Ronnys, Inc. v. County of Merced

Demurrer

This is an action for (1) breach of contract, (2) breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and (3) declaratory relief, arising from a construction project known as the Spring Fair Water System, located at 403 F Street, Los Banos, California.

Concurrent with its demurrer, Defendant filed a request for judicial notice on March 4, 2025, asking the court to take judicial notice of four documents and twelve facts. Defendant's request for judicial notice of documents identified as Exhibits A through D is GRANTED. (Evid. Code § 452, subd. (d)(1).) This includes the dates of filing or production of each of these documents. Defendant's request for judicial notice of facts identified as 1 through 12 in the request is DENIED. For purposes of demurrer, the properly pleaded allegations in the complaint are presumed to be true. (Unruh-Haxton v. Regents of University of California (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 343, 358.) Judicial notice of the enumerated facts is neither necessary nor relevant to the determination of the demurrer. An additional request for judicial notice of the contents of the court's file for this case as well as an Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information Guide, was filed by Defendant on April 10, 2025, and is GRANTED. (Evid. Code § 452, subd. (d).) The request for judicial notice of the fact that Defendant was served via hand delivery on January 31, 2025, is DENIED.

Concurrent with its opposition, Plaintiff filed a request for judicial notice on April 4, 2025, asking the court to take judicial notice of the proof of service of the summons and complaint in the instant case, filed January 31, 2025, showing personal serve on January 22, 2025. This request is GRANTED. (Evid. Code § 452, subd. (c).)

Defendant's demurrer is untimely. (Code Civ. Proc. § 430.40, subd. (a).) Nonetheless, this Court exercises its discretion to hear and decide the demurrer on its merits, other statutory requirements having been met. (McAllister v. County of Monterey (2007) 147 Cal.App.4th 253, 281.)

On the face of the complaint, the instant action is time-barred for failure to comply with the Government Claims Act and therefore does not state of cause of action. The demurrer is SUSTAINED WITH LEAVE TO AMEND to allege specific facts regarding the timing of the accrual of the claim, whether the relevant statute of limitations was tolled, and any other facts that may allow Plaintiff to plead around the meritorious timeliness defense raised by Defendant.

Plaintiff shall file its amended complaint no later than May 16, 2025.

Motion to Quash Service of Summons

Parties who wish to appear remotely must contact the clerk of the court at (209) 725-4111 to seek permission and arrange for a remote appearance.

Defendant's unopposed motion to quash service of summons is DENIED. Defendant's motion does not state a proper basis for quashing service of summons (see Code Civ. Proc., § 418.10(a)). A motion to quash is limited to contesting personal jurisdiction over the defendant where the statutory requirements for service of process are not fulfilled. (Stancil v. Superior Court (2021) 11 Cal.5th 381, 396.) The defendant cannot use the motion to dispute the truth of the allegations contained in an unlawful detainer complaint. (Id. at 397.) In this case, defendant disputes that the 3-day notice to pay rent or quit referenced in the complaint correctly states the amount of rent owed; this is not proper basis for a motion to quash service of summons.

In reviewing the court's file, the Court notes the confusion caused by the premature clerk's default judgment entered on March 25, 2025 following plaintiff's premature filing on that date of a request for entry of default and default judgment. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1167(a), a defendant's response to service of summons in an unlawful detainer proceeding must be filed within ten days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and other judicial holidays. However, if service is completed by mail (as it was in this case), the defendant has an additional five court days to file a response. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1167(b).) In this case, based on the completion of substituted service by mailing on March 5 (as indicated on the proof of service filed by plaintiff), defendant had until March 26 to file his response. To correct the court's error in granting plaintiff's premature request for entry of default, the clerk's default judgment was set aside by Court order entered on April 1, 2025. Defendant's present motion to quash was timely filed following the setting aside of the clerk's default and default judgment.

Plaintiff, as the prevailing party, is directed to prepare and submit a written order consistent with the Court's ruling for the Court's signature. Defendant shall file his responsive pleading no more than five days after service of written notice of entry of order denying defendant's motion to quash. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1167.4(b).)
